My Dear Sir Thanks for your kind letter and the kind expressions about Mr Clemens - Mark Twain - I have been telling him of my acquaintance with you and he will be very glad to meet you. I will bring him to the Club on next Sunday a week I think, and trust you may be there.

I have met your friend Mr Motley recently and like him very much indeed.

I am going to name my new book, which will be the story about my life with the Indians "Un=written History."

Please remember me to Lady Pollock and Mr Frederick Pollock and believe

yours sincerely
Joaquin Miller

P.S. As you spoke [illegible] about my Autographs, I offer this letter to ensure you one of a really great American - [illegible] - of whom you were speaking - its [illegible] reached me - as it contains nothing private for my return it is of no closure. The friend mentioned who is to [illegible] with me is [illegible] the one we are to [illegible] you is [illegible]

yours
